

Handbag or lunch tote?

I bet you can't tell the difference, right?

Neither could I. But it turns out it is a lunch tote disguised as a chic handbag. The Kate Lunch Tote is 100 percent nylon, insulated and deep enough for a bottle of water and whatever else to get you through the day. My favorite part, though, is the drawstring closure. Cute, huh?

And for $28, it's a great gift idea. It comes in red or black with coordinating mock crocodile trim.
