

to You from The Midwest

Forget braving the Black Friday madness. Instead, browse our annual guide to gifts designed and crafted in the Midwest.

Talk about urban renewal: Plants thrive in terrariums made of materials salvaged from abandoned homes.

Flip this watch over, and the caseback lists every city, from Detroit to Pontiac, along Woodward Avenue, Michigan's main street of industry.

Try this fiery honey drizzled over mashed sweet potatoes, grilled chicken or even pizza.

1 Lead Head Glass terrarium Assembled in Detroit, these artful glass planters come in a variety of sizes. From $45 (leadheadglass.com). 2 Detroit Watch Company watch A tribute to the Motor City's heyday, the luxe M1-Woodward Chronograph is handmade with gears and springs from the world's finest watchmakers. $1,850 (detroitwatchco.com). 3 Thyme is Honey pencil set Slip Danielle Bruffodt's wisecracking pencils in the stocking of your favorite organization junkie; from Madison, Wisconsin. $8; for 10% off, use code MWL10 (thymeishoney.etsy.com). 4 Ballpark Blueprints artwork Marvin Larson and Thomas Young create hand-drawn, blueprint-style illustrations of ballparks, stadiums and golf courses. Unframed from $60; for 15% off, use code MWL15 (ballparkblueprints.com). 5 Detroit Surf Company longboard Indulge your inner daredevil (OK, your teenager's) with this sleek pintail-shaped board. $140; for 10% off, use code MWL10 (800/792-4472; detroitsurfco.com). 6 Scoville Unlimited honey We loved the smoky heat of this habanero honey that's made in Viroqua, Wisconsin, and sold exclusively by Chicago's Yearbook Studios. $18 for 8 ounces; for 10% off, use code MWL10 (708/366-1920; yearbookstudios.com).